Stay & Experience Gilgandra Region!

1

MILLER STREET, GILGANDRA

A country town wouldn't be complete without a great main street. Find restaurants, cafes, a bakery and retail boutiques all within a short walk. Visit our Coo-ee Bronze Sculpture commemorating the centenary of the Coo-ee March.

HUNTER PARK

Stop for a picnic under Hunter Park's century old plane trees, only 200 metres from the CBD. Bring the family and enjoy the modern kids play equipment, skate park, public BBQ and the Gilgandra Swimming Pool.

MURAL TOUR

Our streets are full of colour. Murals illustrating life in Gilgandra and historical events, can be found along Miller Street, Bridge Street and Wamboin Street. Peek below the Jack Renshaw Bridge to see artwork by local Aboriginal artists.

ORANA CACTUS WORLD

Explore up to 1,000 species of cacti collected from around the world all in one place.
